

Training Weekend 24th-25th March 2018

for Woodcraft Folk volunteers

This two day course aims to cover most aspects of working with children and young people in Woodcraft Folk and is delivered in a fun and interactive format.

Anyone involved, or planning to be involved in a Woodcraft group is welcome to attend. It is for new members and current members who would like to refresh their knowledge.

- Expand or refresh your understanding and knowledge of Woodcraft Folk.
- Explore programme activities grounded in our aims and principles.
- Share activity ideas, skills and games with other leaders and helpers.
- Explore how to work safely with children and young people.
- Consider issues from the eyes of children and young people.
- Explore the benefits and outcomes for children and young people of their involvement in Woodcraft Folk.
- Identify sources of additional support and training.

Comments from our previous training weekends...

“A real sense of group learning and sharing experiences”

“Generated great discussion and ideas”

“Optimism and better confidence to be a better leader”

“Reinforced my opinions about Woodcraft and why its worth investing time in”

Date: Saturday 24th to Sunday 25th March 2018

Venue: Golden Lion Hotel, Stirling

Trainers: Alex Wilde and Dani Lisney

Includes: Saturday night accommodation, Saturday lunch and dinner, Sunday breakfast and lunch. We have a budget to cover travel expenses.

Booking: To apply for a funded place on this training please complete a booking form and Email it to Alex Wilde; alex@woodcraft.org.uk OR complete an online application on the Woodcraft Folk website; <https://woodcraft.org.uk/activities/new-leader-training-scotland-1>

Please apply as soon as possible and by the deadline of Monday 5th March. Places will be allocated and confirmed by Friday 9th March.