

Badge making

Groups use badgework to plan and structure activities. A badge can provide a theme for a term's programme, as well as links to associated activity plans.

It's also great fun making your own badges, for competitions, bringing in your own for a badge exchange, or to use new and old badges to tell the story of Woodcraft and our aspirations for the future.

Badges in the Archives

Old badges linked to events in the past, values of woodcraft as well as activities which are either still done, or long abandoned.
